

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: 09/29/2025

At Bon Samaritain Shared Living, your privacy matters. This page explains, in simple terms, how we handle your information when you use our website.

What We Collect

- Information you give us: Your name, email, phone number, or anything you share through our contact forms.
- Automatic data: Basic technical info (like your browser type or IP address) and, if you allow, your location so we can show nearby listings.

How We Use It

We use your information to:

- Help you find and connect with sober living resources.
- Respond to your messages.
- Show map features and listings near you.
- Improve our website and services.

Sharing Your Info

We don't sell your information. We only share it when:

- You've submitted a form that needs to go to a sober living operator or coordinator.
- We work with service providers who help us run the website (under strict confidentiality).
- We're required to by law.

Cookies & Tracking

We use cookies to make your browsing better—like showing listings near you and improving website performance. You can turn off cookies in your browser, but some features may not work as well.

Information Accuracy

We try hard to keep our directory information accurate, but mistakes can happen. If you see something wrong, please let us know through our Contact Us form.

Your Rights

Depending on where you live, you may have rights to access, update, or request deletion of your personal information. To make a request, contact us through the Contact Us page.

Children's Privacy

This website isn't for people under 18. We don't knowingly collect children's information.

Updates

We may update this policy from time to time. Check back here for the latest version.

Contact Us

If you have any questions about your privacy or this policy, please reach out through our Contact Us form.

Communication

By submitting your information, you agree we may contact you by text, call, or email about services or updates.
